Want to be a part of the Vegas action? Then cap off your Friday night at the USA 7s by taking a seat at the 4th Annual I'Maul In No Limit Texas Hold 'Em Charity Poker Tournament. The action takes place at the Poker Room at the Monte Carlo Resort and Casino.

Located on the Las Vegas Strip and host to the international teams playing in the IRB 7s World Series, the Monte Carlo Resort & Casino is ideally located for the annual I'Maul In tournament.

Several past U.S. Eagles have already signed up for this year's tournament, including Mike Saunders, John Jelaco, Rick Crivellone, Chris Petrakes, Dave Bateman and Brian Gallagher.

The first hand will be dealt at 10pm Friday, Feb. 8. In order to take part in this year's I'Maul In Tournament, participants must pre-register.
The cost to reserve your seat is just $30. Seating is limited to the first 100 players.

The buy-in for the I'Maul In No Limit Texas Hold 'Em Charity Poker Tournament is $65 per player, with $50 rebuys and a one-time $50 add-on also available. The Monte Carlo receives a portion of the initial buy-in for hosting the event. The remainder from the initial buy-in and all monies from the rebuys and add-on will go into the player prize pool. 10% of the number of total registrants will get paid, so spread the word so we can get to the full allotment of 100 players.

In addition to the first place money, the winner will also receive the coveted 2013 I'Maul In No Limit Texas Hold 'em Poker Tournament crystal trophy.
