A few notes by the numbers on the USA Men's National Team performance in 2012:

Record 3-3
Home 1-1
Away 1-1
Neutral 1-1

Won tour series - first time since 2003.

Leading scorer: Chris Wyles (55)
With his 19 points against Romania November 24, Chris Wyles moved to 101 points all-time for the USA, passing Grant Wells for 7th all-time.

Top 10:

Rank	Player	Pts
1	Mike Hercus	465
2	Matt Alexander	286
3	Chris O'Brien	144
4	Mark Williams	143
5	Vaea Anitoni	130
6	Kevin Dalzell	109
7	Chris Wyles	101
8	Grant Wells	100
9	Paul Emerick	85
10	Francois Viljoen	69

With his try against Romania November 24, Paul Emerick now has 17 tries for the USA, still good for 2nd all-time.

Top 5:

1	Vaea Anitoni	26
2	Paul Emerick	17
3	Todd Clever	11
4	Philip Eloff	10
5	David Fee	9
	Mike Hercus	9
	Riaan van Zyl	9

With his appearance for the USA against Romania on November 24, Todd Clever tied Vaea Anitoni for 8th all-time in caps for the USA. In that game, Paul Emerick tied Dave Hodges for 4th all-time. Emerick is the USA's most-capped back.

Rank	Player	Pos

1	Mike MacDonald	67
2	Luke Gross	62
3	Alec Parker	58
4	Dave Hodges

Paul Emerick 53

53

6	Kort Schubert	49
7	Mike Hercus	48
8	Vaea Anitoni

Todd Clever 46

46

10

Dan Lyle

45