The USRFF has announced the winners of the 2012 Kevin Higgins College Scholarships. The $1,000 scholarships, named in honor of one of the all-time great U.S. centers, Kevin Higgins, are awarded to graduating high school seniors who have gone onto continue their education and rugby at the collegiate level. This year's 10 recipients bring the total to 41 Higgins Scholarship winners since the program was established in 2008.

"Selecting the Kevin Higgins College Scholarship recipients continues to be a difficult yet rewarding task for the Scholarship Committee," said USRFF Executive Director Brian Vizard. "Every application we receive is from a deserving young man or woman and all of them would be worthy of receiving a Higgins Scholarship."

This year's Kevin Higgins College Scholarship winners are:

Alex Vogt has only been playing rugby for just over two years now but in that short amount of time he went from novice player to being named the captain of his high school team to being an A-side player at Bucknell University, in three different positions. Alex earned a 4.1 GPA at Bayard Rustin High School and was inducted into the National Honor Society his junior year. Alex became involved with Boy Scouts of America at an early age and earned his rank of Eagle Scout, the Scouts highest rank, in 2009.... Read more about Alex Vogt.

Austin Wortley is a two-time cancer survivor, a Vanderbilt University freshman and an inspiration. Austin was an All-Star rugby player in high school. He starred on the Harriton High School wrestling team for four years; played on the football team from 2009-2011; and was on the track team in 2010. He was also a competitive sailor from 2009-2011. He graduated from Harriton with a 3.6 GPA was a member of the National Honor Society his junior and senior years. He was the Student Council's Sergeant at Arms in 2011 and was a Student Council Committee member his senior year... Read more about Austin Wortley.

Bradley Roberts was exposed to rugby early in life as he was born in England. He joined the San Diego Mustangs and first played with their U12s. Bradley's U16 Mustangs team was the 2010 U16 Southern California champions as they finished with a 35-0 record. Bradley was the team's MVP and he was also selected as the starting scrumhalf for the Southern California U17 Griffins. That same year Bradley was part of the first ever Torrey Pines High School rugby team. Torrey Pines also went through the season undefeated and was crowned Southern California High School Champions.... Read more about Bradley Roberts.

Dallas Frye began playing rugby five years ago. He's led his Colorado Springs Grizzlies Rugby Club to Colorado state titles in 2010 and 2011. And with Dallas as the Grizzlies captain in 2012, they not only defended their state title but finished third in the nation. Dallas never hesitates to volunteer his time to help others. He is also a licensed pilot. He flew about 75 hours with an experienced pilot before he was allowed to fly solo ... Read more about Dallas Frye.

Jake Hoffman became the starting hooker for the Plano Rugby Club in Plano, TX his sophomore season and started every match in the number two jersey until he graduated this past June. He had an outstanding senior season, guiding his team to the state championship match, leading his team in tries scored and was voted Texas' Most Valuable Forward by Texas high school coaches. Jake also helped coach and mentor younger players at practice and at junior clinics. Jake's overall GPA at Wakeland High School was 3.65 and he was a member of the National Technical Honor Society from 2009-2012 and the Spanish Honor Society from 2009-2011....
